 - b. My Cases
 - c. My Submissions
 - d. My Workbench

- 4. Last Jurisdiction Filed to
 - a. Any County or DCA in the Portal
- 5. # Rows Per Page in Document Selection Grid (3, 4, 5, 10, 20)

If you select a home page, a filing path and the jurisdiction, when you log into the Portal unless you have an alert pending you will be immediately taken to that page. Below is an example of a home page set to the E-Filing Map, the filing path to Trial Courts – Pleading on Existing Case and the jurisdiction to Orange County. Now you are ready to file Orders on existing cases in Orange county by simply clicking on the File Now button.

The screenshot displays the 'E-Filing Map' interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'E-Filing Map' highlighted, and links for 'Help', a video icon, and a question mark icon. The main area features a map of Florida divided into six districts, each with a color-coded legend: First District (pink), Second District (purple), Third District (green), Fourth District (orange), Fifth District (yellow), and Sixth District (blue). To the left of the map, there are two sections: 'Select a Filing Jurisdiction' and 'Appellate Court'. Under 'Select a Filing Jurisdiction', the 'Trial Court' section has three radio buttons: 'Pleading on Existing Case' (selected), 'File Documents to Multiple Cases', and 'File Same Document to Multiple Cases (No Fees)'. Below these is a link 'Read more about courts accepting Proposed Documents'. A dropdown menu shows 'Orange' as the selected jurisdiction. The 'Appellate Court' section has three radio buttons: 'Case Number Pending', 'Case Initiation', and 'Pleading on Existing Case'. At the bottom, there is a blue 'File Now' button.

If you have an alert pending, the Portal will automatically bypass your Preferences and take you to the My Alerts page. That page is where the Portal will land when you log in until you rectify or clear the pending Alert. There are four reasons why you might receive an alert.

1. Filing Moved to Correction Queue
2. E-service Email Delivery Failure
3. Removal from E-service List Request
4. Bounceback received more than five times

Once the Alert has been cleared, you will then land on your designated Home Page when you log into the Portal.

Email Preferences

You may also select which email notifications you wish to receive in your email provider. If you do not wish to receive any of the email notifications on the list, simply slide the indicator so that No is displayed. Be sure to click on Save at the bottom of the page. You will no longer receive those email notifications in your email provider.

Filing an Order

Using the E-Filing Map

The Portal Filing Management Links are located under the Filing Options Menu. In addition, for ease of use these links are also located in the upper right corner of the page in the Portal Quick Links.

You may file an Order from either the E-Filing Map [if filing to a case for the first time] or your My Cases page if you have already filed an Order to an existing case. Once you file an Order to an existing case, it is automatically added to your My Cases page for quick access through the Submit button when you are ready to file again to that same case.

When filing to a case for the first time, select the E-Filing Map. If you have set your Preferences to display the E-Filing Map as your Home Page then that is where you will land when you log into the Portal unless you have Alerts pending.

Select Pleading on an Existing Case and click on the County name in the E-Filing Map or select the county name from the drop down. These two selections can also be set as a Preference when you log into the Portal. To set up your Preferences, see the My Account section above.

Select File Documents to Multiple Cases if you wish to submit documents to multiple cases in one session. Complete the Case Information, Parties, Documents, ServiceList, Review tabs and then Add another Case or Submit Now.

Select File Document to Multiple Cases if you wish to file the same document [e.g. Trial Order] to multiple cases. Complete the Case Information, Parties, Documents, ServiceList, Review tabs and then Add another Case or Submit Now.

Then click on File Now.

Case Information

From the Division drop down select the Division of the case you are filing to, then type in the Year and the Sequence # and select a Court Type [if necessary] from the drop down and then click on Search.

You as the filer are also added to the E-service List but if you do not wish to receive an email copy of the Order you may de-select yourself from the E-service List. You will not be automatically added to the E-service List for the case but you do have the option to receive service of the Orders you file.
