The Florida Courts E-Filing Authority Launches Updated Website with New Branding

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Today, the Florida Courts E-Filing Authority launched an updated website which includes new branding.

The new website, available at www.MyFLCourtAccess.com, incorporates the new branding into a modern web layout with a renewed emphasis on user experience. The site will continue to house the E-Filing Authority's public documents, including meeting information, annual reports, and governing documents. With a new look and feel, the website now provides a more in-depth overview of the E-Filing Portal and its benefits to the end user.

"The primary focus on the new website is the end user," said The Honorable Tara S. Green, Clay County Clerk of Court and Comptroller and E-Filing Authority Communications Chair. "The goal behind the rebrand and the new site design is to help people understand – in simple terms – what the portal does and how it can be used before even registering. I believe the new website accomplishes that."

"Over the past decade, the Florida Courts E-Filing Portal has evolved and grown. It is providing services for more users than ever before," said The Honorable Karen E. Rushing, Sarasota County Clerk of Court and Comptroller and E-Filing Authority Chairman. "The new branding reflects the value it has provided to our communities by bringing the courts and the public together through technology."
